

Jessi Flint has a perfectly good life with a successful business and the perfect man. So hes only in her dreams...until her flaky assistant goes to a New Age fair and Jessi suddenly begins receiving gifts with love notes signed by a mysterious Damian. Figuring its a joke, she returns to her Michigan hometown for her class reunion and her cousins wedding and the inevitable questions about her lack of a boyfriend. When Damian is waiting when she arrives at the airport in Detroit, her confusion only deepens when she realizes he really is the man of her dreams. Or rather, men of her dreams, as she seems to live in different eras but always with him. But how can this stranger know all about her...and how can she live without the man she lives when their enchanted time together is over?
