

Whore. Slut. Homewrecker. Those are a few names associated with what Brenna Konners does for a living- and she cant argue. After all, she is an escort. Being put into foster care at only eight years old, Brenna found any way to cope with her pain and loneliness. Drugs and alcohol never did much for her. It was when she found the power in which sex holds, she knew she found an addiction unlike any other. The idea of love is vacant. There is nothing anyone can give her thatll make her change her life. She has it all; a nice condo, a gorgeous car, all the money she could imagine, and more. That is until an alluring, persistent man named Everett moves in downstairs. Everett Burke is great at being a detective, but one massive screw up sends him home to pack his bags. His new assignment in a different state has him bringing down a prestigious escort business. It doesnt take long for Everett to fall for his sexy and mysterious neighbor, Brenna. He attempts to unearth her secrets, only to find more. As she opens up to him, he wants to return the favor, but being a detective means he has to lie about his career. It pains him to keep things hidden from Brenna, but nothing hurts him more than when he opens the hotel room one night to find out she is part of the same business he is planning to expose. Warning: 18+. Mature audience only, due to explicit sex scenes and other adult content. This novel is not intended for everyone.
